

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
All filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart;
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

Life Reflections

Angelia Lusane-Cox was born on November 14, 1969 to Mr. Benny Clark and the late Ms. Linda Clemons. She was educated in the public school system of Sumter County, Americus, Georgia. She was a 1989 graduate of Sumter County Comprehension High School in Americus, Georgia.

Angelia Lusane-Cox, affectionately known as “Red”, was a sweet, loving and caring person who loved to spend time with family; listen to gospel music; and complete puzzles. She had a sweet side, but most of the time she was a serious person. Angelia loved watching Good Times, Sanford and Son and The Jeffersons. God was always first in her life. Angelia’s favorite songs were Better Days and Deliver Me.

Angelia gained her angel wings at Pine Pointe Hospice in Macon, Georgia on December 20, 2021. She was preceded in death by her mother; sister, LaShawnda Clark-Kendrick; and her grandsons, Cornelius Barker, Jr. and Korneal Barker.

She leaves to cherish sweet memories: her husband, Johnny Cox of Americus, Georgia; three daughters: Mrs. Keandra Lusane-Garry (Christopher), Mrs. Octavia Lusane-Williams (Kahraccus), and Ms. Johnn’Angelia Cox, all of Macon, Georgia; her son, Henry Lusane, III (Jasmine) of Gray, Georgia; five grandchildren: Kaden Williams, Kyla Garry, Henry Lusane, IV, Kellee Garry, and Bella Lusane; her grandmother, Rosa Clemons; her father, Benny Clark (Minnie) of Americus, GA; four sisters, Melody Barnhill (Michael), Keneisha VanCleave (Deshawn), Avian Clemons, and Jasmine Dice (Marcus); six brothers: Timothy Edge, Benjamin Clark, Cornelius Clark, Johnny Clemons, Horatio Clemons and Cedric Clark; and a host of uncles, aunties, nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and family friends.

Until We Meet Again

*We think about you always
We talk about you still
You have never been forgotten
And you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain
To walk and guide us through our lives
Until we meet again.*
