

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me.

I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today;
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say.

I know how much you love me as much as I love you;
Each time that you think of me I know you will miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me; I'm right here in your heart.

Remembering Marlene

“Sugar Mama”

Ms. Marlene Green was born on February 26, 1942 to Christine Green and Arthur Green. She grew up in Americus and attended Staley High School. In 1957, she joined Mitchell Grove Baptist Church. She was previously employed at Sumter Regional Hospital, Manhattan, and Georgia Produce Bean Plant in Americus, Georgia.

Ms. Marlene Green passed away on February 6, 2022 at Phoebe Sumter Medical Center. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her grandparents, Lollie Daniels and Charlie Daniels; her sister, Pricillia Brown and brother, James Green.

Left with precious memories that will forever be cherished by her devoted family include her siblings: Mattie Pearl Burton of Americus, Georgia and Robert Baker (Vera) of Smithville, Georgia; her brothers-in-law: Matthew Burton II and Edgar Brown; sister-in-law, Barbara Green; her uncle, William Green; her aunt, Mayrita Green; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Our Gratitude

Our family is extremely grateful for all expressions of love, kindness and services rendered during our time of bereavement. May God richly bless each of you.
