

Tides

The tide goes out;
The tide goes in;
Sand washes away and
Is brought back again.
Every day I sit here and
Wish you were by my side,
To dry my tears before
They are swept away upon the tide.

A mother is your first love,
As her children are her last,
A bond that stretches evermore,
In the future and the past.
There are other loves that join it,
That spring up on either side,
But still it lingers, constant,
Ever flowing like the tide.

Obituary

Pula Smith Woods, affectionately known as Ms. P, was born on September 26, 1948 to the late Walter Smith, Sr. and Louvinnie Battle Smith. She was the youngest of six. She was united in marriage to the late Jimmy L. Woods, Sr. on June 12, 1970. Pula dedicated her life to Jehovah. She loved Jehovah and shared Bible truths with many. She was a faithful servant until her death on February 7, 2022. She was preceded in death by her siblings: Walter Smith, Jr., Charlie Smith, Sr. and Dan Smith, Sr.

Pula was a beautiful, loving and caring mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She was a loving nanny to many. She enjoyed watching television, traveling, and cooking.

She leaves treasured memories with her children: Jimmy L. Woods, Jr. (Kecia) of Perry, Georgia, Tracy D. Adkins (Norman) of Opelika, Alabama and Kimberly Woods of Americus, Georgia; a sister, Annie Smith of Americus, Georgia and a brother, Horace Smith of Buena Vista, Georgia; sisters-in-law: Linda Smith and Lorraine Smith of Jacksonville, Florida, Gloria Woods of Americus, Georgia, Loretta Woods of Columbus, Georgia, Jennie Seyfried of Radcliff, Kentucky and Karen Woods of Herndon, Kentucky; brothers-in-law: Oscar L. Woods, Sr. of Columbus, Georgia and Anton Seyfried of Radcliff, Kentucky; grandchildren: Kemesha Keller of Macon, Georgia, Keandra Keller of Perry, Georgia and Ashley Smith of Union Springs, Alabama; a great-grandchild, Nala Smith-Cook of Union Springs, Alabama; a host of loving friends, nieces, nephews and other relatives.
