

Gone, But Not Forgotten

Don't think of him as gone away
His journey has just begun,
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.

And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And he was loved so much.

Always
IN OUR Hearts

Life Reflections

Mr. Shanadore Chanell Curry, a.k.a. “Dody”, was born on February 14, 1961, to the parentage of Queen Esther Curry and Lawrence Gay Jr. He was educated in the school system in Flint Michigan and graduated from Dillard High School in Florida. Shanadore relocated to Georgia and lived with his father, stepmother and sisters for a period of time before moving to Atlanta, Georgia. He loved his family and friends. Shanadore’s happiest moments were when both sides of his family came together as one big family.

Shanadore married the love of his life, the late Patricia Curry, on February 14, 1985. He is preceded in death by his wife Patricia Curry, grandparents, and stepmother Gwendolyn Gay. He leaves to celebrate his life, three loving and caring daughters: Ms. Shantrice Curry and fiancé Mr. Derry Walker, Ms. Shandoria Curry and Ms. Ivory Morgan; his son, Samuel Wilson; his devoted mother whom he loved dearly and called every day, Ms. Queen Esther Curry; his father whom he loved and called “Pop”, Mr. Lawrence Gay Jr.; one brother, Reginald Holiday whom he loved dearly; two sisters: Canyon Frederick and Kimberly Page (Dave) whom he loved dearly and always called them “Sis” and never their names; three grandchildren: Devante Glaze, Cornelius and Kie’el Morgan; uncles and aunts: Alphonzo Gay (Mamie), Joyce McGriff, Myrna Wilbon (Willie), Sonja Williamson (Kerry), Tracie Gordon (Jimmy) and Deneana Lewis (Antonio); a special cousin, Darnell; a host of great grands, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends including the Melton family.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:7 (KJV)
