The Last Call
When that phone rang
Who could it be,
So early in the morning
Just calling me
When that phone rang
I know about a million times
Everyone knew it was you
Waiting on the other line.
Not looking for trouble,
Not starting any drama,
It was always the same question,
“Ya’ll seen Momma?”
She would call all day,
She would call all night;
She was quick to apologize
When she knew you were uptight.
What Shonda? What?
That’s what I’d say
Lord, what would I give now
Just to hear her voice today.
Now when that phone rings
I just stare at the ID
Wishing it was my sister
Love You
Antwan

Acknowledgement
Jesus promised us, they who mourn would be comforted.
During our hours of bereavement, this promise has been fulfilled by you, our kind and loving friends and neighbors.
Thank you for coming to help us bear our grief. Your calls, visits, prayers and kind deeds during the illness and passing of our loved one shall never be forgotten.

What My Godmother Meant To Me
Godmothers have no wands or wings
So they work with wisdom, love and things.
Having taken on the role,
You loved me right down to my soul.

You offered kindness
And greetings with a hug and kiss
Each freely out of love, which I'll miss.

I chose a twinkling star in the sky at night
To say a prayer for you by its bright light.
You're in Heaven now and no longer in pain,
In my thoughts you'll always remain.

How lucky I was,
How blessed I've been
You were more than my Godmother
You were also my friend

I Love & Miss You
Cotterious Hicks
