

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again
—Author unknown

Flower Attendants

Friends & Family

Pallbearers

Jody Williams
Reggie Adams
Alfonso Dismuke

Hermon Thornton
Albert Adams
Curtis West

Acknowledgement

Words cannot express the appreciation and thanks that we desire to extend to our family and friends. For your many acts of love, visits, prayers and thoughts rendered to us during this sorrowful time, we say thank you. May God continue to bless and keep each of you.

The Family

Home Going Celebration for Mr. Larry Robinson

Sunrise: December 5, 1957 Sunset: October 17, 2016

Saturday, October 22, 2016

3:00 P.M.

Jerusalem Grove Baptist Church
211 Rhodes Street
Smithville, Georgia

Pastor Courtney Moore, Officiating
Rev. Rickey Cladd, Pastor

Obituary

“Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning”
Psalms 30:5

Mr. Larry Robinson was born in Smithville, Georgia on December 5, 1957 to the parentage of the late Mr. Willie R Williams, Sr. and Mrs. Izola Robinson West. He was educated in the Lee County School System. In the last two-three months of his life, Larry lived at the Lillian Carter Nursing Home in Plains, Georgia where he received 24-hour specialized care for his physical needs. In spite of the many challenges and struggles he has had to face, he remained the same. Larry was bold enough to never claim cancer, and humble enough to know not to refuse Christ.

Larry was affectionately known by his family as “Vonzell”. He inherited this name from the classic sitcom, “Happy days”. Fonzie, a character on the show, had this catchphrase that summed up a typical conversation you would have with Larry, “heyyyyy”, or if you spoke to him he might respond with these words, “alright, alright” with a smile and chuckle. That marked the beginning and the end of the conversation. If you engaged in a longer conversation than that, “you were blessed”! Larry was a simple man, he lived a simple life, and everyone that knew him would say, “Larry was simply a good man”. However, Larry did come to know that being good is not good enough to enter into heaven. So...like one of the two thieves on the cross along the side of Jesus, he seized the last opportunity of grace that was granted to him on October 17, 2016. He confessed and repented of his sins and accepted Jesus Christ into his heart as his lord and savior.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, John and Ola Mae Terry, Leonard and Mable Champion, and Doc and Esther Williams. He was also preceded in death by his brothers, M.C. Robinson, Kirk Robinson and Marvin West; his sister, Marcella A. Williams; his aunts: Mae Vessa Trice, Annie Lloyd, and Bessie Hunter; his uncles: Leonard Robinson, Henry Robinson, Clinton Terry, Joe Terry, C.W. Terry, and Johnny Terry; also a cousin, James Trice.

In addition to his mother, Mrs. Izola Robinson West, Smithville, GA. and stepmother, Mrs. Collie Williams, Sumter City, Larry Robinson leaves to mourn his passing, his beloved daughter, Damerius Lafeia Patterson; son-in-law, Elder Larry Patterson, one grandchild, Jailyn Heavenly Symone Patterson all of Americus, GA; nine sisters: Viola West, Smithville, GA, Beverly (Chris) Dingle, Plains, GA, Shelia Smith, Gretel (Levi) Smith, both of Smithville, GA, Vaternia (Elder Wallace) Ingram, Americus, GA: Eva Mae Williams, Linda Williams, Monteen Williams, Sumter City, Bernice Williams, Americus GA; five brothers: Curtis (Stephanie) West, Hinesville, GA, Gregory (Priscilla) West, Clyde (Rose) Angry, Americus, GA, Willie (Carol) Williams, Jr. Emmett Angry, Sumter City; two aunts: Rosa Thomas, Montezuma, GA Lizzie Robinson, Americus GA; one uncle, Leroy Williams, Americus, GA; a devoted friend, Patricia Diane White, Smithville, GA and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends also survive.

Mr. Larry Robinson
SUNSET ~ October 17, 2016

Life Is A Journey
Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be.
A resting place along the road, to await eternity.
We all have different journeys, different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place far greater than we know.
For some, the journey is quick; for some, the journey is slow,
And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.
Genuinely submitted,
Your LCHS Class of 1975

Homegoing Services
Saturday, October 22, 2016
3:00 p.m.
Jerusalem Grove Baptist Church
Smithville, GA

Woods Mortuary, Inc.
151 North Oak Street • Americus, GA 31709
Phone: (229) 924-2243

Order of Service

Musical Interlude	Jerusalem Grove Baptist Church Choir
Processional	Pastor Courtney Moore and Ministers
Parting Glance	Family and Friends
Closing of Casket
Hymn	Deacon Willie French
Prayer	Deacon William Thomas
Scripture Old and New Testament	Dr. Verbertha Tillis
Selection	Jerusalem Grove Baptist Church Choir
Silent Reflections
Eulogy	Pastor Courtney Moore Kingdom of Heaven Ministries, Inc. Americus, Georgia
Acknowledgements	Staff of West’s Mortuary
Musical Postlude	Pastor Courtney Moore
Recessional
Interment	Jerusalem Grove Cemetery